flowers and leaves. Further floral and butterfly elements continue asymmetrically along the necklace, creating the playful botanical design for which Roberto Bravo jewellery is particularly recognisable. A series of articulated gold drops and miniature floral and insect motifs descend from the central arrangement, providing additional movement when the necklace is worn. The reverse of the principal floral section displays intricate openwork construction and incorporates a polished cartouche stamped "R.BRAVO 14K". The necklace is completed by polished gold end caps and a secure lobster-claw clasp stamped 14K. An unusual and highly distinctive Roberto Bravo jewel combining fine goldwork, colourful enamel and sculptural botanical motifs in a statement necklace that is both collectible and exceptionally wearable.
