Description

Miniature on cardboard - Portrait of a young woman with flowers, late 18th century
A charming miniature portrait depicting a young woman with a delicate, luminous complexion, her head adorned with a profusion of powdered hair, delicately adorned with a wreath of small blue and white flowers. Draped in a pastel blue fabric with soft folds, revealing a dress in shades of pink and red, she has a gentle and graceful expression. This ravishing miniature reflects the refined taste of the late 18th century for intimate, precious, and delicate portraits. The subtlety of the modeling, the freshness of the complexion, and the harmony of the colors lend it a very special charm. Painted on cardboard, this small-format work captivates with its quality of execution and intimate character. It is presented
