Description

A striking and elegant large-format frame made of wood and gilded stucco, in the Louis XIV / Regency style. Dating from the second half of the 19th century (the Napoleon III period), this frame features a richly detailed design, characterized by powerful, projecting corner cartouches adorned with stylized shells, volutes, and dynamic foliage. The backgrounds are delicately enlivened with "à la Berain" barleycorn-patterned checkerboard motifs, creating a magnificent play of light. Its reverse-sloping profile is ideal for adding depth to a work of art or for incorporating a living room mirror. The back, sound and original, is reinforced by its period corner keys. Condition : The piece is in good overall condition for a household item. A few slight signs of use, minor stucco, and normal wear on the gilding, which give it a very
