Description

BARBIZON SCHOOL - LIVELY LANDSCAPE
BY THE RIVER Oil on canvas, signed lower left; signature to be identified. A charming rural landscape depicting a river flowing through lush countryside, bordered by abundant vegetation and tall trees with variegated foliage. In the foreground, two peasant figures discreetly enliven the scene, while in the distance, meadows, herds, and a village with light-colored roofs are visible beneath a luminous sky streaked with clouds. The artist favors a subtle palette of deep greens, warm browns, and golden tones, harmoniously contrasted by the silvery reflections on the water and the softness of the sky. The brushwork, supple and lively, reflects a sensitive observation of nature and a quest for atmosphere, in the tradition of 19th-century French landscape painting. This work evokes the spirit of the Barbizon School, a movement that revitalized landscape painting by placing central importance on the direct observation of nature and the variations of light. The painting is presented in a superb gilded frame adorned with sculpted scrollwork, foliage, and ornamental motifs, which elegantly highlights the composition. Canvas dimensions: 55 × 46 cm Dimensions with frame: 80 × 71 cm A distinctive piece, ideal for a classic decor, a charming home, or a collection of antique landscapes.
