

Large 18th-century Fireplace - Regency Style, Made Of Oak

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 193.5 cm

Height : 126 cm

Description

A grand and elegant 18th-century fireplace, influenced by the Regency style, crafted from high-quality solid oak. The mantelpiece features a superbly curved band with a triple crossbow-shaped cutout. It is adorned in the center with a curved cartouche featuring a projecting molding, carved with a stylized shell (or palmette) motif in bas-relief. On either side, the upper corners are decorated with small flowers or rosettes carved from solid wood. The wide, sturdy side legs feature a slightly curved console profile. They are enlivened by large molded panels, the upper portion of which takes the shape of a gendarme's hat, characteristic of the decorative style of the period. The upper oak tabletop features a softened molding (corbin's beak), faithfully following the recesses of the

Dealer

Antiquités Jacques Coeur

Antiquités

Mobile : 0767227236

16 rue Jean Moulin

Foëcy 18500

structure. The piece boasts a superb, warm natural patina that highlights the tight, authentic grain of the oak. This generously proportioned piece of woodwork, with its balanced carving, will fit perfectly into a charming home, a living room, or a library. External dimensions: Total length (at the top): 193.5 cm Total height: 126 cm Condition: In good overall condition and authentic. The wood features an antique patina with small signs of age, wrinkles, and variations in color that bear witness to its history and confirm its period (18th century).