Description

Dimensions - Total: 76 × 62 cm.- Panel: 64.5 × 47.5 cm - View: 58 × 45 cmAn early 18th-century rectangular frame made of carved and gilded wood, featuring a rich decoration of scrolls, volutes, and foliage motifs on a checkered background.The four corners are adorned with large carved cartouches, while protruding ornaments punctuate the center of each side. A delicate frieze of leaves highlights the inner border, framed by moldings.The patinated gilding shows signs of wear, revealing the preparatory layers and the wood in places, giving the decoration a contrasting relief.Condition: wear and missing areas in the gilding and decoration, with visible corner joints. The reverse side retains traces of old glued paper and mounting marks.
