Description

Oil-on-panel painting depicting a view of Martigues by Maurice Barle. He was the painter of the Mediterranean and of light, which he mastered wonderfully to dynamically capture the luminous beauty of his native Provence.

Nicknamed the "Art Deco painter of the sea," he studied at the École Nationale des Beaux-Arts in Paris and at the École des Arts Décoratifs. Born in 1903, he died in 1961. This is a beautiful painting of a good size, measuring 65 by 47 cm. Martigues, nicknamed the "Venice of Provence," is magnificently depicted here, notably featuring the Church of Saint Genest.
