Description

This chest of drawers is crafted from mahogany and features a rich, glossy finish. Its silhouette is defined by a serpentine front and elegant cabriole legs, hallmarks of a timeless classic style. The piece offers practical storage with a total of five drawers: four of equal size and a larger one at the base. Each drawer is adorned with drop handles in patinated metal set against decorative backplates. The mahogany construction highlights the rich grain and deep reddish-brown hue characteristic of this prized wood. The chest is in good condition, consistent with its age; the original finish has developed a patina that reflects its history and authentic character. The structure remains sturdy and functional for daily use. With its classic lines and warm wood tones, this chest fits seamlessly into a bedroom, living room, or
