Description

This chest of drawers stands out thanks to its wooden structure and marble top. Its design draws inspiration from the timeless elegance of the Neoclassical style, characterized by clean lines and refined details. The structure, crafted from wood in a warm brown hue, is topped with a slab of white marble featuring grey veining. The piece features four drawers--two smaller ones at the top and two larger ones below--all accented with delicate brass inlay. It rests on tapered, fluted legs typical of the style, while brass hardware, including circular pulls and escutcheons, completes the look. The chest is in good overall condition, reflecting careful use over the years. The wood retains its original finish, and the marble is well-preserved. The natural patina that has developed on the brass elements adds to
