

Empire-period Mahogany Console Table, "return From Egypt" Style, Circa 1810

1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Empire-Period Mahogany Console Table, "Return from Egypt," Circa 1810A lovely Empire-period console table in mahogany and mahogany veneer, "Return from Egypt" style. This rectangular console table features a beautiful white marble top with gray veining. It rests on two tapered front columns, topped by remarkable female busts in the antique style, with headdresses and drapery, carved from wood and blackened. Its two straight rear legs frame a mirrored back panel. The lower section is joined by a wide mahogany crossbar resting on a rectangular plinth. The waistband is adorned with a central female mascaron. An elegant geometric frieze in gilded bronze accentuates the waistband. Beautiful gilded bronze ornamentation, including rings, appliqués, the

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

mask, and the frieze. Fine wood grain. A beautifully crafted piece of furniture with understated and refined lines. This bench combines practicality with style, offering a comfortable extra seat. Ideal for an entryway, at the foot of a bed, or next to a sofa--it also makes for a very attractive addition to any space with its harmonious and delicate curves. With its appealing proportions, it will easily blend into your decor. This lovely piece, with its meticulous finish, exemplifies the elegance of Louis XVI-era furniture and will bring charm and prestige to your home. Empire-period piece, 19th century, circa 1810. Dimensions: Height: 87.5 cm Width: 108.5 cm Depth: 35 cm In Excellent Condition. We are at your disposal for any additional information WWW.DANTAN.STORE