Description

A rare Art Deco tête-à-tête set in Limoges porcelain, featuring silver-plated metal and Bakelite accents. It was decorated by Julien Balleroy & Cie, a firm that operated a workshop in Limoges from 1914 to 1932 (before changing its name). A third cup is included (useful as a spare, given the rarity of the model). The trompe-l'oeil effect is remarkable; at first glance, it looks like solid silver-plated metal. The finish is highly lustrous. The set is in excellent condition (no breaks or cracks). There is very slight wear on the sugar bowl (on a few corners, two edges, and some interior spots), though this is virtually invisible against the brilliant finish of the rest of the set. Dimensions: Cup (diameter 5 cm, height 9.7 cm); Saucer (side 4.2 cm); Creamer (10 cm x 16 cm, height 11 cm); Sugar bowl (12
