

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Small Louis XVI-style Tripod Pedestal Table In Walnut, White Marble, And Brass - 19th/20th Century

220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Walnut

Diameter : 29,5

Height : 45

|             |
|-------------|
| Description |
|-------------|

Small Louis XVI-style tripod side table in walnut, white marble, and brass - 19th/20th century Price: 320 EUR
An elegant small Louis XVI-style tripod side table, resting on a patinated solid walnut base, topped with a circular white marble top veined with gray, framed by a delicate openwork brass band. This small piece captivates with its balanced proportions and the refinement of its decorative elements. Its central shaft, turned into balusters and adorned with long vertical fluting, rests on a tripod base with elegantly curved and molded legs. The peripheral railing, finely openwork with a succession of geometric motifs, lends lightness and elegance to the piece while highlighting the neoclassical inspiration of this design. Period and Style Both decorative and functional, it will naturally find its place in a

|        |
|--------|
| Dealer |
|--------|

1900

Antiques store

Tel : 0768068473

Mobile : 0768068473

2 rue Monseigneur Lavarenne

Lyon 69005

living room, next to an armchair, in a bedroom, or as a stand for a lamp, a vase, or a work of art.

Characteristics
Description: Small tripod pedestal table
Style: Louis XVI, neoclassical inspiration
Estimated period: Late 19th - early 20th century
Wood: solid walnut
Top: White marble with gray veining
Rim: Openwork brass with geometric motifs
Base: Tripod with curved legs and fluted central shaft
Height: 45 cm
Diameter: 29.5 cm
Condition: Original patina; visible signs of wear and brass oxidation consistent with its presumed age

A charming little piece of furniture, with proportions particularly well-suited to both classic and contemporary interiors.