Description

A sculptural vase made of forged steel, created in the first half of the 20th century. Its slender silhouette, flaring toward the neck, is enlivened by an organic relief design evoking plant stems rising along the body. The forging work, the surface irregularities, and the nuances of the dark, metallic patina lend this piece a raw and authentic character. At the intersection of artistic craftsmanship and decorative sculpture, this vase captivates with its naturalistic aesthetic and sculptural presence, in the spirit of the decorative arts of the first half of the 20th century. A piece with character, ideal for an eclectic interior or a collection of wrought metal objects. Period: First half of the 20th century Material: Forged steel, with a dark patina Height: 22.5 cm ProAntic
Keywords: steel vase, forged steel, sculptural
