Circle Of Guido Reni, "saint Sebastian," 17th Century

12 700 EUR

Signature : Circolo Guido Reni

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 99,5cm

Height : 134cm

Depth : 8cm

Description

Circle of Guido Reni, "Saint Sebastian," 17th centuryOil on canvas. 134 x 99.50 cm.Framed.This work depicts Saint Sebastian and is stylistically linked to the model by the Italian painter Guido Reni (Saint Sebastian)--a motif widely disseminated through various versions, such as those housed at the Prado Museum, the Louvre, and the Gallerie dell'Accademia--as well as to interpretations by the 17th-century Emilian or Neapolitan Baroque schools.Saint Sebastian, a Christian martyr and officer of the Roman Guard, is depicted tied to a tree trunk or a post and pierced by the arrows of his martyrdom.Baroque style, characterized by a dramatic use of light and shadow (chiaroscuro), the gaze turned toward the sky, and an idealized depiction of the saint's anatomy.Good condition.

Dealer

Thesixtyone SL

Antiques

Mobile : 0034 618 360508

Carretera de Fuencarral 44 Edificio 4B Puerta 09

Madrid 28108