Description

Le carquois épuisé (The Exhausted Quiver) 18th-century engraving by Nicolas de Launay (1739-1792), after a work by Pierre Antoine Baudouin (1723-1769). Dedicated to: "His Highness Monseigneur the Prince of Guémenée, Commandant-Designate of the King's Gendarmes of the Guard." Dimensions: 35.1 × 24.8 cm (13.82 × 9.76 inches). Condition and Restoration This engraving is over 250 years old and has been preserved in good overall condition, considering its age. The engraving no longer has its original white margins. Our professional restorer carefully cleaned it to remove traces of age and accumulated dirt. The print had sustained a few small tears in the upper-right corner. These have been carefully repaired (please see photographs). Once the engraving is mounted
