Description

A round Louis XVI-style hot water bottle table or pedestal table, with rich, finely chiseled gilded bronze ornamentation. Made of mahogany, this circular table opens to reveal a drawer with a lovely belt-style decoration in Martin varnish depicting floral motifs (delicate little flowers) and bows in pastel colors. Around the perimeter beneath the tabletop, a frieze depicting a garland with hanging pompons. A bronze finial at the corner joints, on a band above the legs, depicting a foliage-adorned mascaroon. A marble top (which has been re-glued) surrounded by an openwork bronze railing. The entire piece rests on fluted, ring-mounted legs ending in small cleats.
