

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Wall Tapestry Featuring Owls By Colette énard

260 EUR

Signature : Colette Enard

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wool

Width : 82 cm

Height : 113 cm

Description

Decorative tapestry depicting a large owl and her owlets perched on a crescent moon, set in a magical world dotted with stars and butterflies. Colors: mauve, yellow, orange, and green, on a lovely background in natural tones. Details: Tapestry designed by Colette Énard. Lined with gray fabric on the back. Secured with Velcro strips on the back. The top Velcro strip is missing its Velcro backing to attach to the mounting surface; the bottom ones are intact. We can provide you with 3 rings to sew on. A lovely vintage decoration--original and full of charm--ideal for adding a warm touch to any interior. Dimensions: Width : 82 cm Height : 113 cm Biography of Colette Enard : Colette Enard (1918-2016) was a French artist, painter, and tapestry maker, known for her expressive

Dealer

Atelier 21

Antiques and décoration

Mobile : 0609457367

Samonac 33710

portraits, still lifes, and needle-point tapestries, with a career marked by painting and tapestry. Born in 1918 in Saint-Thomas-de-Conac (Charente-Maritime), Colette Enard always dreamed of becoming a painter. She studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Bordeaux and then moved to Paris, which she left during World War II. A biography provided by the city of Royan is available online for more information. For any further information, please feel free to contact us.