Description

Louis XV-Style Bronze and Crystal Chandelier with Four Lights - 19th Century
A very beautiful Louis XV-style bronze chandelier from the 19th century, with four lights, richly adorned with numerous cut crystal pendants. This chandelier features an elegant bronze frame with sweeping arms, embellished with volutes and small crystal rosettes. It is adorned with numerous crystal pendants of various shapes, notably large cut crystal pendants and cut crystal daggers. The central section is adorned with several molded and cut crystal elements, lending the piece great refinement. The lower section is topped by a pretty crystal ball, giving this chandelier a beautiful finish. Its elegant proportions and abundant crystal decoration lend it great charm. A very lovely antique chandelier, ideal for a living
