Description

A very beautiful single-block sculpture of the Virgin and Child from the mid-18th century. The crowned Virgin, standing on a pedestal, holds the infant Jesus in her left arm; her right hand is missing, and she is surmounted by the head of a winged angel. A lovely console serving as a base, adorned with a coat of arms. Pronounced scrollwork on the sides and at the top, forming a canopy. The hanging ring is also an integral part of the sculpture. A few visible insect holes (now gone), scattered signs of wear, and a small chip at the lower edge. I am limited in the number of photos I can take--I'm doing my best to be as honest as possible--so please don't hesitate to ask me for further details. Note: Beyond the technical prowess on display, the artist's passion shines through in this work. Shipping: 15EUR for
