Description

Hand-painted and hand-lettered antique Franciscan blessing, dedicated to Friar Edmundo. An antique devotional panel created entirely by hand, featuring a Latin inscription and a painted, decorated wooden frame. The inscription reproduces the famous blessing given by Saint Francis of Assisi to Friar Leo--traditionally associated with the saint's time at La Verna in 1224. The text invokes divine protection, mercy, and peace, concluding with a personalized dedication to Friar Edmundo (Fratri Edmundo) in place of the traditional recipient, Friar Leo. The composition is embellished with rich polychrome decoration; the central inscription features ornamental lettering and decorated initials, while the text is framed by delicate floral and botanical motifs. The wooden frame, with its
