

Pair Of Opaline And Bronze Cups - 19th Century

2 950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A pair of opaline overlay bowls, resting on cylindrical bronze stems with a brown patina, richly decorated with garlands of foliage and finely chiseled vine tendrils. The circular opaline bowls feature an elegant polychrome design dominated by green, enhanced by botanical motifs and gilding, with a radiating pattern at the center. The rims are accented by a fine gilded frieze. The set rests on gilded bronze and black marble bases, creating a refined contrast with the luminosity of the opaline. Through its decoration and composition, this pair reflects the 19th-century Neoclassical style. Period: 19th century Style: Neoclassical Materials: Opaline overlay, gilded bronze, and black marble Dimensions: Height: 30 cm Width: 25 cm
