Description

Sèvres bisque medallion--Portrait of Louis by Brachard--Restoration periodDescription: Authentic circular medallion made of hard bisque porcelain from the Royal Sèvres Porcelain Manufactory, dating from the Restoration period. It depicts a left-profile portrait of King Louis XVIII in military uniform, wearing his fringed epaulets and the medal of the Order of the Holy Spirit. The white relief stands out against a matte Sèvres blue-tinted background, imitating ancient cameos. It is signed in intaglio on the edge of the bust: Brachard f. (for Alexandre Brachard, the factory's famous sculptor and modeler) and SÈVRES in full. .Marked on the reverse in the clay with the large monogram "B" Presented in a round frame from a later period. Excellent condition. Total diameter
