Description

This elegant beechwood bookcase step stool captivates with its exquisite craftsmanship. Its spiral structure is built around a molded central shaft, topped with a ball. The four perfectly balanced, fan-shaped steps form a harmonious spiral. The entire piece rests on a stable base with several elegantly proportioned tiers. This step ladder is ideal for decorative purposes--displaying your books, decorative objects, or plants. Combining practicality with classic charm, it has become a sought-after collector's item today for its aesthetic appeal. Full of character, this piece adds a touch of timeless elegance to an office, library, or living room.Period: 20th centuryExcellent condition following restoration in our cabinetmaking workshop.Finish: WaxedShipping available upon quote in France
