Description

An elegant silver fly box designed in the shape of a small circular pendant and adorned with translucent lilac-purple enamel on a guilloché background. The delicate mechanical decoration on the silver surface forms a regular concentric pattern, visible through the layer of translucent enamel and creating a subtle play of light.The piece features a hinged, two-part design. One part forms a small compartment for flies, equipped with its own hinged lid, the interior of which has a gold finish. The second part is fitted with a mirror, transforming this miniature object into an elegant toiletries accessory. A small hanging ring allows the box to be worn as a pendant or attached to a chain or a chatelaine.The combination of silver, guilloché enamel, gilding, and an ingenious miniature design gives this
