Description

This swivel chair for children is a rare piece, a testament to the traditional craftsmanship of Thonet-style bentwood furniture. Entirely crafted from stained beech, it features an elegantly curved frame, where every curve reflects masterful craftsmanship and precision. The enveloping backrest and rounded armrests offer natural comfort, while the hand-woven cane seat adds an authentic and warm touch, typical of handcrafted creations from the early 20th century. Mounted on a central swivel base, this chair was originally used as a children's barber's chair, giving it a nostalgic charm and a playful functionality. Its tripod base, formed by curved legs, ensures perfect stability and enhances its classic look. A decorative piece with character, it fits just as well in a contemporary interior as it
