Description

Portrait of a Noble Gentleman - Alex de Andreis
An important oil painting on canvas depicting an elegant gentleman in 18th-century attire, portrayed full-length in a stately setting. The subject wears a refined suit in shades of pink and ivory, embellished with floral motifs, wide cuffs, and matching stockings. The dark hat and cane reflect the sophistication and aristocratic taste of the era. The work, created in the late 19th century, stands out for its vibrant colors, attention to detail, and rendering of the architectural setting. The composition draws on the tradition of costume portraiture, with particular attention paid to the reconstruction of historical clothing and settings. The painting is signed in the lower right corner. Alex de Andreis (1871-1939), a Belgian painter known for his genre scenes and figures in
