Description

Original work created in gouache on paper, signed "F. Clausen" in the lower right corner and dated 1926. This modernist composition features an assemblage of geometric shapes, graphic lines, and stylized faces with expressive eyes. In the center, a structure of angular red, turquoise, green, and black shapes gives the composition its framework. Motifs evoking eyes, profiles, and architectural elements complete this dynamic ensemble. The work is also distinguished by the presence of fragments of handwritten text integrated directly into the colored forms, creating an original dialogue between writing, drawing, and painting. This work is signed "F. Clausen" and attributed to Franciska Clausen (1899-1986), a Danish artist known for her explorations of modern art and abstraction.
