No. 2: Antique 19th-century Stole Made Of Red Woolen Cloth, Embroidered With Silver Metallic Thre

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

Second stole; an identical first version is for sale on this site.A stunning antique textile piece--a red wool cloth richly adorned with silver metallic embroidery.An elegant design of leafy scrolls, sinuous stems, and floral motifs unfolds across the entire surface, highlighted by a wide woven border in a pale gold hue. One end features a remarkable interlaced monogram, framed by a symmetrical plant motif.The raised embroidery, the delicacy of the metallic work, and the depth of the red lend this piece a solemn character and a unique refinement.Its distinctive shape and decoration raise questions about its original purpose: a ceremonial ornament, part of a ceremonial costume, or a textile associated with an institution or a brotherhood.A rare piece for enthusiasts of antique textiles, metallic

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur
French antiques textiles
Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes
Névian 11200

embroidery, and historical artifacts.Period: to be determined, likely 19th century, subject to examination.Materials: red wool cloth, silver metallic thread embroidery, woven metallic border.Dimensions: 94 x cm x 58 cmCondition: original condition, with some signs of wear and age visible in the photographs.