Description

Oil on canvas. The work depicts a close-up half-length portrait of a female figure, identified as the red-haired model repeatedly portrayed by Jean-Jacques Henner, the French painter to whom a label on the frame attributes the work. In fact, the painting style is fully consistent with that of the French painter who established himself in Paris as a portraitist in the second half of the 19th century. The painting is presented in a frame contemporary to the work, as is the metal label attributing it to the artist. ARAROT0304318
