Pair Of Patinated Bronze Bedside Lamps--empire Style Reinterpreted In The Art Deco Style, Circa 1940

460 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Height : 35.5cm

Description

An elegant pair of solid bronze table lamps, likely made in the 1940s or 1950s, featuring a more streamlined interpretation of the Empire-style candelabra, reminiscent of the Art Deco aesthetic. The shafts feature deep fluting, topped by an ornamental frieze reminiscent of Louis XVI and Empire-style pieces. They rest on wide, molded circular bases, adorned with radiating godrons and a frieze of stylized water leaves. The bronze elements have retained their original patina and finish, displaying a beautiful golden honey hue, accented by darker areas that highlight the relief of the chiseled details. The set is topped with two contemporary pleated lampshades made of ecru satin with golden highlights, whose warm lighting particularly accentuates the nuances of the bronze pieces. The
