Description

An elegant small Parisian porcelain table lamp in the Louis XVI style, dating from the early 20th century, combining the delicacy of a polychrome painted design with a gilded bronze base. It features a white porcelain body shaped like a vase, adorned with four cartouches framed by delicate scrolls of acanthus leaves accented with gilding. Two cartouches feature delicate bouquets of polychrome flowers, in the tradition of Parisian porcelain. The other two have blue and pink backgrounds, respectively, embellished with gilded foliage motifs. The richness of this decoration, the harmony of the colors, and the delicacy of the floral bouquets lend this small lamp a very special elegance, characteristic of Louis XVI-inspired creations. The porcelain is set in a gilded bronze frame, resting on a circular,
