Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Welcome to my shop. Decorative silver-plated bronze seal depicting Napoleon Bonaparte full-length, with his arms crossed. He is wearing his famous bicorne hat, a military uniform with epaulets, high boots, and a sword at his side. The uniform, hairstyle, and accessories are meticulously detailed. The figure rests on a circular, molded base. The seal's die remains blank, with no engraved monogram. Probably dating from the 19th century. The silver plating shows signs of wear, revealing the warm hue of the bronze in places. No obvious cracks are visible in the photographs. Height: 12 cm. Weight: 219 grams. A beautiful collector's item for enthusiasts of Napoleon, antique writing accessories, and figurative seals. Thank you for visiting my shop. Best regards, Ben. Keywords:
