Description

A 750/° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle-head hallmark) line bracelet, entirely adorned with a continuous row of brilliant-cut diamonds set in prongs. A timeless classic in jewelry, also known as a "rivière" or "tennis" bracelet, this piece captivates with the purity of its lines and the continuous sparkle of its diamonds. The stones, arranged with great regularity, are individually held in place by four particularly discreet prongs. This airy setting allows the diamonds ample space, enhancing the penetration and reflection of light while visually minimizing the presence of the metal. The result is a luminous, uniform, and delicate design in which the diamonds appear to flow seamlessly from one to the next. The setting consists of a series of small, articulated prongs, giving the bracelet remarkable flexibility. This meticulously crafted design allows it to naturally follow the curves of the wrist, while maintaining excellent stability when worn, without twisting. The piece thus offers remarkable comfort, combined with great freedom of movement. The ratchet clasp, perfectly integrated into the line of diamonds, becomes virtually invisible once closed, thus preserving the piece's aesthetic continuity. Its blade is crafted from 18-karat white gold, and a side safety latch completes the closure mechanism. At once understated, refined, and timeless, this bracelet embodies a jewelers' elegance that transcends trends. Its delicate design allows it to be worn daily--on its own for a delicate, luminous look, or paired with other bracelets for a more contemporary ensemble. Total diamond weight: 3.84 carats Total gross weight: 12.03 g Length: 17 cm (can be adjusted by our workshop--please contact us) Condition: very good condition, imperceptible micro-scratches, natural inclusions in the diamonds not visible to the naked eye.
