Description

Bvlgari Tondo 18 Karat Gold and Stainless Steel Five Charm Necklace An exceptional and highly distinctive Bvlgari Tondo charm necklace, crafted in 18 karat yellow gold and stainless steel, combining the Italian house's instantly recognisable design language with a versatile detachable charm arrangement. The necklace measures approximately 16 inches (40.6 cm) in length and has a substantial gross weight of approximately 48 grams. The open-link yellow gold chain is punctuated by a series of circular stainless steel stations, each engraved with the iconic "BVLGARI BVLGARI" signature. Five individually detachable charms are suspended from the necklace. The composition centres upon a sculptural yellow gold heart, accompanied by four circular Tondo charms displaying distinctive openwork motifs, including sun, snowflake, clover and stylised abstract designs. Each charm incorporates its own lobster-style fastening mechanism, allowing the individual elements to be removed, repositioned or rearranged. This ingenious construction allows the necklace to be styled in several different ways and gives the piece a particularly playful character. The juxtaposition of polished yellow gold and stainless steel is quintessentially Bvlgari, creating a strong two-tone appearance that is both immediately recognisable and highly wearable. Selected yellow gold components bear "750" purity marks, denoting 18 karat gold.
