

Bronze Medallion--profile Of Marat

110 EUR

Signature : Brisson

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 22,5

Depth : 4

Description

A circular bronze medallion with a brown patina, depicting Jean-Paul Marat (1743-1793) in profile, an iconic figure of the French Revolution nicknamed "The Friend of the People". The revolutionary is depicted wearing his famous scarf tied around his head. Created by Adolphe Brisson in 1868 based on models by Pierre-Jean David d'Angers. Beneath the bust is the inscription "L'ami du peuple" (The Friend of the People). On the back of the neck: "Unable to corrupt him, they assassinated him" as well as a Masonic symbol--a level--pierced by a knife. Diameter: 22.5 cm Weight: 1 kg 100 Shipped via Colissimo with appropriate protective packaging; shipping costs 20 euros within France; quotes available for other destinations. Contact me at 06 78 87 61 61 Jean-Paul Marat, born on May 24,

Dealer

Antiquités Armel Labbé

General antiques dealer, paintings, small furniture, seats, mirrors, object

Tel : 02 43 44 64 89

Mobile : 06 78 87 61 61

1 Place Madame Mauclerc/11 et 13 place Saint Nicolas
La Chartre Sur Le Loir 72340

1743, in Boudry (Principality of Neuchâtel) and assassinated on July 13, 1793, in Paris, was a French physician, physicist, journalist, and politician. He was a Montagnard deputy in the National Convention during the Revolution. His assassination by Charlotte Corday allowed the Hébertists to turn him into a martyr of the Revolution and to lay his remains to rest in the Panthéon for several months.