Description

An antique open-face key-wound pocket watch with a cylinder escapement, retailed by J.W. Benson. The outer case and inner cuvette are composed of solid 18-karat yellow gold. The back cover features a engine-turned guilloché finish surrounding a blank central circular cartouche. The inner cuvette is engraved with text reading: "Watchmaker By Warrant To The Queen, J.W. Benson, 62 & 64 Ludgate Hill, London & Geneva." The interior of the case lid is stamped with an "18K" purity hallmark within an oval border alongside the serial number 37563. The gold-tone dial features an engraved floral pattern center, black Roman numeral hour markers, a dotted outer minute track, and 2 blued steel hands. The internal frosted gilt movement includes a Lepine bridge layout, blued steel
