Description

A pair of white opaline glass baluster vases crafted by Baccarat. Designed with a ruffled, gilt-trimmed rim and a footed base, hand-painted with polychrome floral bouquets featuring roses, pansies, and morning glories, accented with turquoise blue and gilded bandings. Jean-François Robert for Baccarat, Louis-Philippe period (circa 1835-1840). H_25 cm D_12.5 cm. Very good overall condition. Jean-François Robert, formerly a painter at the Sèvres Porcelain Manufactory, patented a specialized enamel technique in the 1830s that transformed decorated opaline glass. Executed for Baccarat, this exquisite pair demonstrates his masterly botanical rendering, where delicate hand-painted floral sprays harmonize with opulent gilt and turquoise trim on pure white opaline glass.
