Description

A clear, satin-finished crystal perfume bottle by Lalique, the "Martine" model, designed in 1979 by Marie-Claude Lalique. Resting on a circular pedestal, this bottle features a rounded body adorned with a crown of roses in relief, delicately satin-finished, contrasting with the transparency of the polished crystal. Its slender neck is topped by its original crystal stopper, harmoniously complementing the bottle's silhouette. This creation showcases Lalique's expertise in working with polished and satin-finished surfaces and its commitment to floral motifs. Lalique, "Martine" model, created in 1979. French craftsmanship from the late 20th century. Bottle complete with its original stopper. Contains a small amount of vintage perfume. Shipping: 14 euros within France, 25 euros within the EU, and 100 euros to
