Description

An 18th-century masterpiece for prestigious settings. This extraordinary pair of oil-on-canvas paintings embodies the majesty of 18th-century landscape painting. The works convey a timeless beauty thanks to the perfect harmony between the power of nature and the delicacy of the pastoral figures. Upon closer inspection, one immediately senses an overwhelming energy: the play of light on the rocks, the dynamism of the waterfalls, and the misty skies captivate the viewer's gaze. The artistic legacy of Claude-Joseph Vernet's circle. The composition and painterly style clearly evoke the sensibility of Claude-Joseph Vernet (1714-1789), the celebrated French master of Arcadian and sublime landscapes. During his long stay in Italy, Vernet skillfully combined realistic views with fantastical elements,
