Description

"Painter's Palette" side table with built-in floor lamp Base and stem in black-lacquered wood, asymmetrical, organically shaped tabletop covered in red vinyl and a white glass lampshade Its architectural design combines the functionality of a coffee table with that of an adjustable reading lamp Truly designed for a modular lifestyle, it can be completely disassembled; the turned legs are fully removable, and the black central shaft as well as the white glass shade can be easily unscrewed for transport or storage Its expressive silhouette, combined with refined details such as the gold metal strip along the edge of the table and the wiring integrated into the stem, gives it a sleek look The contrast in colors lends it a playful and unique character No maker's mark In good vintage condition, with
