"Reveille Matin" Oil on canvas, signed upper right Dimensions: 81 x 65 cm Bernard Peltriaux was a French painter known for his figurative works depicting elegant women, often in Parisian settings or scenes from the Belle Époque. Born in Reims in 1921, Bernard Peltriaux studied art at the École des Beaux-Arts in Reims, then honed his craft in the studio of painter René Jaudon in Paris. He later became a state-certified art teacher and has been a member of the Maison des Artistes in Paris since 1981. Style and Work Peltriaux is best known for his compositions centered on female figures. His works, often created in oil, watercolor, lithography, or drawing, depict scenes of Parisian life such as horse races, bistros, bars, and lidos. He has also
