Description

Large lidded Capodimonte porcelain soup tureen - Relief decoration of putti - 52 cm A magnificent and imposing lidded soup tureen in polychrome porcelain, produced in Italy by Capodimonte, featuring a rich decoration of relief figures and gilding.This spectacular piece stands out for its generous proportions, its particularly intricate decoration, and the richness of its polychrome colors.The body of the tureen features a mythological and romantic scene in high relief, brought to life by figures, putti, and cupids moving through a landscape of trees and flowers.The finely modeled figures have delicate skin tones and brightly colored drapery--particularly in shades of pink and green--which contrast elegantly with the sky-blue background.The entire piece is embellished with
