Description

A magnificent traditional figurine made of authentic Chinese porcelain, depicting a smiling young boy carrying two geese on his shoulder. A traditional symbol of happiness, purity, and family prosperity. Origin & Manufacturer: Made in Jingdezhen, the historic capital of fine porcelain in China. It bears, on its base, the official rectangular stamp of the prestigious Jingdezhen City Artistic Porcelain Factory (????????), one of the famous "Ten Great State-Owned Factories." Period: Circa 1970-1980 (the period of the People's Republic of China dedicated to the export of art). Finish & Style: Beautiful polychrome enamel work in the Famille Rose style. The facial details are hand-painted with great finesse. The edges of the clothing and the geometric patterns are accented with fine gold
