Description

A beautiful table setting consisting of 11 linen damask napkins (late 19th century). Each piece features the initials M-M, hand-embroidered within a delicate floral design. Although they have been used, they have retained their shape well, and the white embroidery has not lost its texture. Ideal for everyday use, this high-quality set would take on a more modern look with a custom fabric dye job. Condition: Please note two small, old mends located on two separate napkins. These details are visible in the close-up photos. These imperfections are factored into the listed price. ? Buy this item on our website? Additional informations and photos? Online payments ?
