Description

Elegant contemporary Pompadour-style ring, also known as a sapphire and diamond cluster ring, crafted in 18-karat white gold. At its center is a beautiful oval-cut sapphire weighing 1.29 carats, displaying an intense royal blue color. The luminous presence of the brilliant-cut diamonds, totaling approximately 0.75 carat, beautifully enhances the sapphire's rich royal blue hue and elegantly frames its oval shape. Its delicate setting and harmonious proportions make this refined ring a particularly lovely choice for an engagement ring. DETAILS
