Description

Large Persian Oriental KASHAN Rug - Iran -
Mid-20th century
Type: Persian rug
Origin: Kashan, Iran
Motifs: Traditional floral design
Composition: Wool pile on a cotton warp and weft
Dimensions: 275 × 375 cm
Period: Mid-20th century, Shah period
Condition: Antique rug showing signs of wear, with a stain on one border and a discoloration above the central medallion.
This large Persian Kashan rug, dating from the mid-20th century, exemplifies the traditional craftsmanship of Iranian workshops. Its floral design and generous dimensions make it a striking piece, ideal for adorning a spacious living room or a large reception area. The rug is very heavy and has been cleaned. However, a stain on one of the borders and a discoloration above the central medallion remain visible.
