Description

Émile GODCHAUX (1860-1938)" Road from Pierrefitte to Cauterets in the Pyrenees"Oil on canvas,Signed in pen in the lower left corner,A beautiful work by the painter Émile Godchaux depicting the road from Pierrefitte to Cauterets in the Pyrenees, featuring two figures.The artist depicted this subject on several occasions, which has allowed us to precisely identify this road in the Pyrenees.The artist had a particular fondness for the Pyrenees and Savoie, where he painted torrents and high-altitude scenes in a realistic and precise manner.Emile Godchaux is a French painter of the Realist school, particularly renowned for his natural landscapes and seascapes. Closely aligned with the spirit of the Barbizon School, his pictorial style is characterized by a subtle mastery of light and
