Description

A neoclassical-style chest of drawers resting on a plinth, featuring four front-opening drawers, crafted from gold-leafed mahogany and finished with a varnish that highlights the wood's natural beauty. Each drawer is framed by moldings with cut corners and adorned with dangling gilded bronze handles featuring drapery motifs. A testament to high-quality cabinetmaking, the drawers are joined with visible dovetail joints. The piece bears the "M. Hirsch" stamp engraved into the wood, the signature of the Maurice Hirsch fine cabinetmaking house, renowned for the quality of its craftsmanship. Originally from the prestigious Hôtel Royal Monceau in Paris, this piece combines the timeless elegance of classic lines with the sophistication of its luxury hotel provenance.Minor signs of wear but in very
