

French Charles X Opaline Glass Ribbed Trinket Box With Key, Circa 1820-1830

8 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A rectangular opaline glass casket in white soap-bubble opalescence. Molded with vertical bamboo-style fluting or ribs along the body and a starburst ribbed pattern radiating from the center of the domed lid. Fitted with a chased gilded brass hinged rim band and its original ornate working lock with key. France (attributed to Baccarat, Saint-Louis, or Bercy), Restauration / Charles X period (circa 1820-1830). H_8 cm W_11.5 cm D_8.5 cm. Very good overall condition complete with original key. Ribbed opaline glass lockboxes from the French Restoration era were prized vanity items for high-society dressing tables. The delicate opalescent glow of the glass, highlighted by geometric fluting and finely chased gilt-bronze mounts, represents the exquisite craftsmanship of early 19th-century French glassworks.
