Description

Bulbous perfume bottles crafted in deep cobalt blue glass. The bodies are hand-decorated with rich gilded scrollwork frames and delicate floral sprays. Each flared gold-rimmed neck holds a magnificent original solid blue glass stopper carved in the full relief of a blooming flower. Bohemia (attributed to Moser, Harrach, or Eggermann), mid-19th century (circa 1850-1870). H_15 cm D_11 cm. Very good overall condition, rare with intact original carved flower stoppers. Cobalt blue glass vanity bottles with hand-carved blossom stoppers were among the most coveted luxury creations produced by Bohemian glassworks during the Victorian and Second Empire eras. The combination of intense royal blue color, delicate gold enamel, and intricate crystal carving showcases the
